JURY RETURNS VERDICT FAVORING ROOSEVELT

Judge Andrews Sent Men Back as Verdict Was Not in Proper Form.

(Special to The Herald)
Court House, Syracuse, N. Y., May 21.—A verdict in favor of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt was returned today by the jury in the $50,000 libel suit brought against the ex-president by William Barnes, the Republican leader of Albany. But Justice Andrews held that the form of the verdict was improper and sent the jury back to reconsider it. When the jury returned after several hours deliberation, Foreman Zull announced that the twelve men had found for Colonel Roosevelt, asking that the court divide the costs equally between the Colonel and Mr. Barnes. The jury were agreed that Mr. Roosevelt was not guilty of libel, but one member, Edward Burns, a Syracuse motorman would only agree if the jury asked the court to divide the costs.

Justice Andrews sent the jury back again at 10.12 a. m. to deliberate on the question without any added instructions.

The jury are satisfied that the Colonel was justified in his declaration made on July 22, 1914 that William Barnes was acting in accord with Charles F. Murphy and Tammany Hall in dictating the political faith of the Empire State.

At 12.34 the court took a recess until two o'clock. Justice Andrews notifying the jury that if they arrived at a verdict before that time they must wait until then before giving answers.

Fleet Has Entered Austrian Port of Cattaro on the Adriatic Sea

Dispatches From Mitylene State that Allied Fleet Has Destroyed All Forts on Asiatic Side of Dardanells

(Special to The Herald)

Paris, May 21.—Italy has struck the first blow through her fleet, says a news agency dispatch from Rome. This asserts that the Italian warships which have been patrolling the Albanian coast have entered the Austrian port of Cattaro, Dalmatia, on the Adriatic sea. The dispatch gives no details as to whether the town of Cattaro has been bombarded or not. The forts guarding the port have been bombarded several times during the war by the French war ships.

King Victor Emmanuel today signed a decree denying immunity to the Austrian and German ambassadors to the Vatican. They will leave Rome tomorrow.

AUSTRIANS CALLED TO ARMS

(Special to The Herald)

Venice, May 21.—The Austrian authorities at Trieste have issued an imperial decree calling to the colors all males from the ages of 17 to 60 inclusive in the war with Italy.

AMBASSADOR TO LEAVE ROME

(Special to The Herald)

Paris, May 21.—Prince von Buelow, the German ambassador to Rome, will leave Italy tomorrow, returning to Germany by way of Lugano, Switzerland, according to dispatches received here from Rome today.

AUSTRIANS INTERNE

50,000 ITALIANS

(Special to The Herald)

Venice, May 21.—Dispatches from the frontier state that the Austrian authorities have already interned 50,000 Italians in the district of Pola. Great concentration camps have been opened at Croatia. Many Italian citizens have been arrested in several towns and are being held as spies.

Large forces of Austrian troops are arriving at the Italian frontier and are working day and night to strengthen the Trentino fortifications.

LITTLE EXCITEMENT FOLLOWS PARLIAMENT'S ACTION

(Special to The Herald)

Vienna, May 21.—News of the Italian parliament's action conferring upon the cabinet the full power, was received here today without excitement. It was followed by rumors that Italian troops had already crossed the Austrian frontier, but there was apparently less interest in this than in reports that Russia might sue for peace. The source of the latter report could not be learned, but in the circles where this was accepted as true, it was pointed out that the presence of Emperor William of Germany, and Emperor Nicholas, of Russia, at the front at the same time, was significant. Passenger traffic on the railroads to the Italian frontier was suspended today. This indicates that government troop movements are under way.

ASIATIC FORTS SILENCED AND DESTROYED

(Special to The Herald)

Athens, May 21.—All of the Turkish forts on the Asiatic side of the Dardanelles have been destroyed, according to a dispatch from Mitylene today. Several of the European forts are still holding out, however, the statement said. The allies are advancing on Gallipoli peninsula supported by the fire of the battleship Queen Elizabeth. The column was attacked by the Turks near Kild-Bahr, supported by the cruiser Goeben, which was firing from the Sea of Marmora, but drove them back and took 600 prisoners.

POPE SETS ASIDE SUM FOR WAR VICTIMS

(Special to The Herald)

Rome, May 21.—Pope Benedict XV. announced today that he will give one million lire, approximately $193,000, for the benefit of Italian victims of the war with Russia. This sum will be drawn from the Vatican funds.

LORD KITCHENER PROBABLY OUT OF OFFICE

(Special to The Herald)

London, May 21.—Lord Kitchener was summoned to Downing street today by Premier Asquith and a conference lasting four hours was held in the Premier's residence. Reginald McKenna, home secretary, and Lord Crewe, secretary for India, participated. No official statement was issued after the meeting, but it was taken to mean in many quarters that Mr. McKenna would succeed Kitchener as war secretary.

Mr. Henderson, labor leader, is slated to become the head of the local government board when the new cabinet is made up.

Y. M. C. A. WINS ITS SECOND GAME

Defeat the Morley Button Company in a Fast Exhibition Last Evening.

It was the consensus of opinion of those who witnessed last evening's game of the Sunset League that they had seen one of the best exhibitions of baseball that the old south play grounds has been the scene of for many a moon. And they were right about it. It sure was some game. Each team will admit that they played ball all the way through and because the Morley Button Company team lost it doesn't mean that they played poor ball, but simply that the Y. M. C. A. had a shade the better, on them. It was any one's game until the end of the first of the fifth when Barratt was thrown out at first for the third out. Both pitchers were working all the time and there were no bases on balls given. And neither one were hit for a little bit and although several attempts were made to steal bases Butler was the only one to succeed. The errors in last evening's game were fewer than has been the rule and they were far from being costly. About the only thing that can be said of the game is that it was mighty good.

The Game

1st inning.—McDonald hit to McPheters who threw him out at first. Gibson struck out Able. Pilgrim was out when Thomas dropped the third strike and recaptured the ball on time to retire him at first. No runs.

McPheters hit to short and Alan thrown out. Moser to Huntoon. Heffernan retired the next two men, Mulholland and Marden on strikes. No runs.

2nd inning.—Huntoon was out on an infield hit ball. Gibson to Jordan. Heffernan fanned. Moser hit one down the first base line that Gibson fielded and touched the bag ahead of the runner. No runs.

3rd inning.—Marden made a good catch of Barratt's high fly. Bryan put one out in the field that should have been taken by Mulholland. McPheters ran back for it and as a result the ball fell safe and the batter was safe also. Moser was fanned. McDonald hit into Jordan's hands and was out. Jordan to Gibson. No runs.

4th inning.—Able reached first when Shuttlesworth slipped up on one he should have had. Pilgrim was safe on a fielder's choice as McPheters threw Able out at second. Marden making the out-out. Pilgrim was out stealing. Thomas to McPheters. Huntoon was out on strikes. No runs.

Marden tied out to Bryan. Moser, by hard running, caught the long fly that Butler knocked out. Infielder a three banger. Thomas also made an out. Able, getting under his long fly. No runs.

5th inning.—Heffernan was thrown out at first. Jordan to Gibson. Moser was out as Thomas caught his high foul. Barratt went down. Marden to Gibson. No runs. The score:

PIRATES A FAR DIFFERENT CREW FROM LAST YEAR

The Pirates of today and the Pirates of last year are two far different ball clubs, and the Pirates of this year are going to finish higher than seventh place or there will be a large number of surprised baseball fans both in Boston and Pittsburgh.

Fred Clarke, by nature is not of the Hughes Jennings style, but when things aren't breaking just as Fred would like to see them break, there isn't anyone in the game that has anything on said Fred.

He gets results whenever possible and he now has a bunch of youngsters that are hustling every day and fighting for all they are worth.

Without Hans Wagner, the Pirates would have been even more colorless than the Athletics, from the fans' point of view, but the way that they are hustling and grabbing everything in sight right now, makes them a much different club.

Clarke has instilled more fight into them this year than before, and when as Clarke says, the club has a chance to get in some morning practice, the team play is bound to improve.

With two new men in the infield, team play is bound to suffer until they can get an opportunity for some fast work together. Gorbier and Johnson, two mighty big helps to the Pirates' team are going to be even better after another month's work.

There is every good reason why the Pirates should be well up this year. There is good pitching strength in Adams, Harmon, McQuillan, Cooper and Maniaux, and good catchers in the phenom Schang, and the old reliable, George Gibson.

Eddie Collins, the new outfielder looks mighty good. He is exceedingly fast and a good hitter. If he pans out as well and Clarke thinks he will, the Pirates outfielders will have a mighty capable substitute.

The Braves are still struggling along minus Evans but he is expected to turn any day now to lend encouragement wherever it is needed. The day of rest gave the crippled a chance to treat their sore arms and thumbs and now they are about all in tip top shape again.

Dick Rudolph isn't even speaking to himself, and won't until he gets a win over some one.

Blank Gowdy, the well known outslugger, is going to get a few more homers because he rather likes the associations caused by the act.

REBUKES BAILEY IN RIGGS BANK CASE

JUDGE TELLS COUNCIL HIS REMARKS ARE IMPROPER

Washington, May 20.—Arguments in the Riggs Bank injunction suit against Secretary McAdoo and Comptroller Williams started off in the District Supreme Court today with a clash between former Senator Bailey, chief counsel for the bank, and Justice McCoy. Mr. Bailey threatened to withdraw from the case and Justice McCoy threatened to refuse to hear the lawyer's arguments. Senator Bailey was arguing for the admissibility of an affidavit disclosing relations between the bank and Lewis Johnson and Co., bankrupt stock brokers. Justice McCoy interrupted to say he had already ruled it would be admitted and that further argument only took time.

Your honor has taken more time than I intended to take for what I intended to say, replied Mr. Bailey.

Your remarks are highly improper, returned the justice. "Please understand that distinctly. Another remark of that kind and some other counsel will argue this case."

Threatens to Withdraw

Mr. Bailey turned his papers to the table and, turning away, replied: "If the Court, feels that way about it, I will withdraw from this case now."

"Do you please about that," retorted the judge, "but don't make such a remark again."

Several of the bank's lawyers surrounded Senator Bailey, and after some conference he said to the Court: "I feel that I owe to my clients a duty higher than any I owe to myself. Therefore, I will remain and continue the argument."

"I also feel that I owe a duty to your client," replied Justice McCoy, "and that will lead me to disallow what you have said from my mind." Whereupon the argument proceeded.

QUIMET WILL TRY TO TAKE MEASURE OF VARDON AND RAY IN NATIONAL OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP TOURNAMENT

Boston, May 21.—Some two years ago the golfing world was startled by the performance of a youth just past his teens, Francis Quimet by name, who captured the national open championship from a field which included the best golfers of this country and England. Quimet has since proven beyond doubt that his 1914 form was not a flash in the pan and last year he added to his laurels by capturing the national amateur championship. Quimet is now acknowledged the best amateur player on this side of the pond and he is picked as a favorite for the national open championship tournament which will be played at the Hahnemann Golf Club, Hahnemann, N. J., June 15-19. In this tournament he will have opposed to him practically the same field which took part in 1913 and it will not be surprising if the contest resolves itself into a battle for supremacy between Harry Vardon and Edward Ray, the two English stars, and Francis Quimet, as was the case in 1913. Two years ago the three played off for the title after having tied in the tournament.

NEWS OF THE SPORTS WORLD

(By Frank G. Menke)
New York, May 21.—"Time taken to the greatest thing in the world for keeping an athlete's blood in condition," said Charlie Huber, the veteran trainer of the Newark Federals. Huber, who was the first man regularly employed as a trainer for a ball club, and whose skill as an osteopath prolonged the baseball years of many of the most famous players during the past 30 years, said:

"Baseball makes a man move around fast. That has the effect of turning up his blood and heating it. Time taken to act as a cooling influence and furthermore it aids in throwing off the blood impurities. If a player will drink the juice from one lime daily he never will be troubled with his blood."

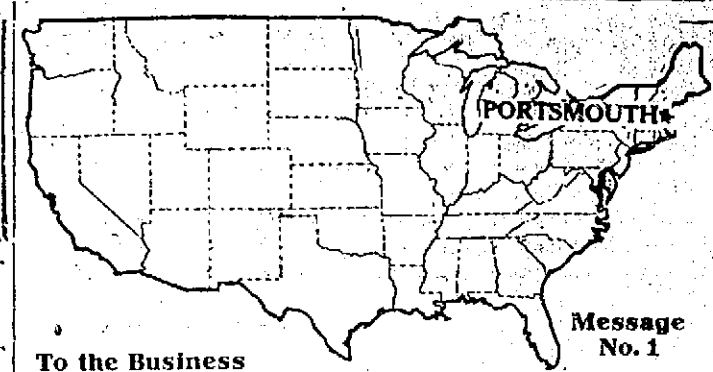

Huber's home is in Cincinnati. His first regular baseball job was as a trainer for the Reds. That was back in the 50's. Since then he has been employed as trainer by various big league clubs, and everywhere he has been hailed as "the little miracle worker."

One of Huber's greatest accomplishments was in restoring power to the arm of Harry Steinfield after his baseball usefulness seemed over. Steinfield was traded to the Cubs, but almost as soon as he put on a Cub uniform something happened to his arm to make it almost useless. The Cubs were on the point of letting out Steinfield when Mrs. Steinfield went to see Huber.

"Can you do anything for Harry's arm?" she asked.

"I don't know, replied Huber. I can tell you better if you bring Harry to my office."

Huber then was back in private practice. Steinfield went to Huber's

To the Business Men of Portsmouth

When a good salesman goes out after business, he first puts on a clean collar and gets his shoes shined. Then he looks like more business—and he's made a flying start toward getting it.

Likewise, a community can go after more business—and get it. The "clean collar and shiny shoes" of this town are the well-painted stores, the bright, cheery homes, the fresh, clean-looking buildings. The part paint plays in building up local pride cannot be put in figures—but its good effects are recorded on the local merchants' sales sheets. Buy good paint. We recommend

NATIONAL LEAD COMPANY

Overall, following Huber's advice, shifted his style of delivery and became a world famous pitcher.

"I graduated from a medical school and thought of going into private practice," said Huber. However, I found that most of the young doctors were nearly starving to death because the people wouldn't patronize them until they got a reputation. I needed money to make both ends meet so I decided to go into osteopathy.

"Among my first patients were several ball players. These were the days when clubs did not carry regular trainers. The ailments of these few ball players were minor ones and I fixed them up quickly. They spread the news to the other players and I soon had a large crowd of baseball players as my patients.

"The management of the Cincinnati Reds heard about this and they offered me a contract to train their men exclusively. I accepted, and I kept the men in good shape. When other clubs saw this they hired trainers and that is how it came about that all clubs made a trainer a part of their outfit."

"After stayed with the Reds for several years and then returned to private practice. Later on he went back to baseball again, moving from one club to another, and always sought after by the big league clubs.

"About six years ago I decided to retire permanently to private practice, but when Bill Phillips, who was an old pal of mine when he was pitching for the Cincinnati Reds, took charge of the Federal League club in Indianapolis I accepted an offer he made to me and went with his club. When the Indianapolis club was transferred to Newark I continued with the club and I guess I'll stay as long as I'll be manager."

Huber, during his career covering more than 30 years, has treated many prize fighters. One of his patients was Kid McCoy.

"McCoy came to me while in the hey-day of his power," said Huber. "He had some trouble with his shoulder muscles that robbed his arm of its full punching power. A few treatments fixed up the Kid. It was a simple job, but the Kid always told me that no one else ever could have done it and he has been one of my greatest friends and greatest boosters ever since."

The I. W. W.

The public is painfully familiar with the fact that there is in this country an organization known as the Industrial Workers of the World. It knows something of its brutal and dangerous methods in the industrial field, but the probability is that comparatively few are aware of the dreams and aims of the organization as set forth a few days ago by its secretary and treasurer, William D. Haywood, when he appeared before the federal commission appointed to inquire into the purposes and plans of a body that has already proved itself to be a dangerous element in American life.

In the course of his testimony Mr. Haywood said that in the new era, meaning by this the time when the ideas of the I. W. W. would prevail, there would be no large cities because there would be no "idle brokers, lawyers and financiers to occupy them." When asked what would become of New York he said it would be torn down or left as a monument to the foolishness of this age. According to the testimony of Mr. Haywood the dream of the I. W. W. is that of "a world in which labor, organized into a vast, compact union, should control all the means of production, and in which there should be no such thing as 'capital.'" Mr. Haywood went on to say that there can be no identity of interest between capital and labor and that this struggle must go on until there shall be no government and no states, as we know them now. When asked what methods would be employed to bring about this change Mr. Haywood answered: "I believe in any kind of tactics. I don't care if it means revolution."

Here at last we have the real program of the I. W. W. as set forth by one of its leaders. It is not a labor organization in the ordinary acceptance of the term, but a revolutionary body dreaming of the abolition of civil government as it exists today, and the country and all of its affairs controlled by "labor, organized into a vast, compact union," with no such thing as "capital."

It is a wild dream and the danger lies in the readiness to resort to violence in the attempt to make it a reality. It is a danger that must be recognized. It should be met, so far as possible, with reasoning and the exposure of its fallacy, and in so far as these will not suffice the strong arm of the law must be brought to bear. The country cannot afford to baffle with a menace of this character. It must be squarely faced and firmly dealt with if it is not in the future to make trouble in comparison with which its past efforts would be insignificant.

The Massachusetts legislature has given up the idea of regulating the jitney bus business this year, and unless the issue is revived before the close of the session the "jits" will be allowed to go as they please. Nevertheless, there is a popular impression, especially in the large cities, that some sort of regulation of this new business would be in order. It has become a perplexing question in many places.

The Navy League of the United States is excited. It calls on President Wilson to call Congress in special session at once to appropriate $500,000,000 to provide the country with adequate means of naval defense. This is another instance in which it is fortunate that there is a man like Wilson in the White House.

Several foreign dignitaries have lost their membership in the Order of the Garter as a result of the war. This may be of importance to individuals, but to the world it is one of the very minor consequences of the great struggle.

Chicago gets Billy Sunday in 1917. He could not withstand a petition with 55,000 signatures and a pledge of $50,000 to cover expenses and he promptly answered, "I come, I come."

A woman mayor of an Illinois town has opened her cleanup campaign by closing the pool rooms, banishing a box ball alley and decreeing that the shooting gallery leave town.

Is Mr. Barnes quite right in asserting that Mr. Roosevelt was once the party's "leader"? Was he not rather its driver?

While the apple trees are in bloom the people of the North can get along very comfortably without orange blossoms.

The disposition to "stand by the president" is highly reassuring and creditable to the country.

All ears, many of them with hands behind them, are now turned toward Berlin.

The attitude of the United States toward Germany: "Wilson, that's all."

President Greatly Pleased at His Reception In New York.

Wildly acclaimed by thousands who lined every street he traversed, cheered wherever and whenever he appeared, enthusiastically applauded whenever he spoke, President Wilson had one of the busiest days, as action goes, that he has spent in a long time reviewing the men and the ships that make up the great arm of the navy on the Atlantic seaboard. Beyond question the most significant thing that occurred during the president's day was the reception by the crowd—the men and the women in the street. The president seemed to so regard it, and so did the police, for the crowd broke through the police lines at one point and nearly surrounded the presidential automobile. All this occurred in a run of a few blocks. In the accompanying illustration the president is seen with his secretary, Mr. Tumulty, in an auto on his way to review the fleet.

LOCAL CLEANINGS

Memorial Day promises to be one of the busiest for years in the line of out-door amusements. With a Sunset League ball game in the afternoon, bicycle races, marathon and horse races, Portsmouth will have much to amuse her. The forenoon and early afternoon will be occupied in paying honor to the war veterans and their departed.

In the handing out of state offices at Concord, isn't it strange that Portsmouth and Rockingham county—with its many able men—never receives recognition at the hands of the Republican party? This city gave Governor Spaulding a fine vote and thus far, so far as state offices go, this section has not even been mentioned. Slowly, but surely, all the old lines are being restored to their old berths. A new deal was expected, but there appears to be very little hope.

Who will come forward with a donation to erect a suitable flag staff at the public play grounds? There is need of a good all-steel staff from which "Old Glory" can be given to the breeze on all occasions. The officers of the Sunset League will gladly arrange for its erection and dedication upon presentation. The play ground should be made the best in the state and there ought to be public spirit enough among our citizens to make it so.

A well known citizen suggested to the writer this morning that attention be directed to the police department to enforce the city ordinances relative to throwing waste in the public streets. He pointed out this morning the condition of Congress street after the ice carts had made their deliveries. In front of most of the stores were piles of refuse where boxes and barrels had been opened. The local police should be instructed to prevent this. Take Fleet street—practically the entire street is used for the storage of wagons and it is a public nuisance. Will you ask the police commissioners why they don't have these laws enforced? Why not help make the city more attractive?

RACES FOR MAY 31.

Marathon at 1 P. M.; One-Mile Bicycle Contest and Horse Race.

The Portsmouth Driving Club have arranged to start the Marathon race at 1 p. m. on Memorial Day, May 31, from Market Square.

A mile bicycle race will be numbered among the list of sports and good prizes will go to the winners.

The horse racing at Rockingham Park is causing a lot of interest and some fast ones will be seen on the track on that date. It will be the best race conducted since the days when the track was first put to use by horsemen. Up to date five or more entries are on the program, with a lot more coming.

IN DULL TIMES EFFICIENCY COUNTS

It may be interesting to note that nearly all the media of so-called national advertising are showing losses. On the other hand, many newspapers show gains, particularly in national advertising. The reason lies in the fact that in dull times the efficient survive. Newspaper advertising is demonstrating its efficiency—its low costs—and its great productiveness. Manufacturers are finding it the easiest channel to quick and sure distribution. Those who seek information along these lines are invited to address the Bureau of Advertising, American Newspaper Publishers Association, World Building, New York.

BUILD UP NAVY, URGES WILSON

In Message to Fleet, Praises Efficiency—Says It Should Be Strengthened.

Washington, May 20—President Wilson today made public the message he sent from the Mayflower to the Atlantic fleet, following its departure from New York after he had reviewed it there. The message was as follows:

"I was greatly struck by the appearance of the fleet and the quiet efficiency shown by the officers and men as I am sure everyone must have been who had the pleasure of seeing it assembled at New York.

"There could have been no more interesting verification of Admiral Dewey's statement that the navy was never in a better nor more efficient condition and that the country has every reason not only to be proud of it, but every reason to wish to go forward in its policy of steadily increasing its strength and equipment."

The message was given out as soon as Mr. Wilson reached the White House on his return from New York. Immediately after breakfast the president went to his study and attacked an accumulation of work. He had no engagements for the day.

Captain William E. Luckett who has piloted the Mayflower for several years on her trips up and down the tonne was injured while on his way to Poney Point to join the yacht last night. His automobile was ditched and he was thrown through the windshield. His head was cut but he continued to Poney Point, boarded the Mayflower and piloted her to the navy yard here.

The President and his party stopped on their way up the river to go ashore at Wakefield, Va., and at Stratford, Va., to visit the birthplaces of George Washington and Robert E. Lee. The house in which Lee was born still stands, but only a monument marks the birthplace of Washington. The people in that secluded part of Virginia were overjoyed at the visit of the presidential party.

The President, with Miss Margaret Wilson, Mrs. Howe, his sister, Mrs. Anna Cothran, his niece, Dr. Grayson and Captain Luckett went ashore in a flat boat because the launches of the Mayflower were unable to make the landing.

Captain Luckett who undertook to guide the party to the Lee homestead was on the point of getting lost several times but finally the presidential party emerged into a clearing where nestled the one story English brick house in which Robert E. Lee was born. It is now occupied by Dr. and Mrs. Stewart and their son, Mrs. Stewart greeted the President and his party warmly.

"My husband's car latched this morning and I knew something was going to happen," she said. "Now the President of the United States has come."

It was the first time Mrs. Stewart had seen a President. Mr. Wilson visited the room where General Lee was born and inspected many pieces of Colonial furniture. He expressed his deep interest in the place and thanked the Stewarts for their hospitality.

On the return to the Mayflower, the President visited the monument marking the birthplace of Washington. Congress makes an annual appropriation for its upkeep.

NO WOMEN ON THE BOARD

List of Trustees Picked by Governor and Council.

It is said that the board of trustees who will replace the board of control to be later appointed by the governor and council will be made up of ten, and that no women will be among the membership. This, if so, comes as a great surprise as it was expected that one or more would be in the new commission. The list is understood to be the following:

Rep. James B. French of Moultonborough heads the list. The others are Rep. J. G. M. Glessner of Bethel, Rep. Albert J. Prescott of Manchester, Rev. John J. Brophy of Penacook, George H. Warren of Manchester, Clarence E. Carr of Andover, Dr. W. E. Lawrence of North Haverhill, George H. Bowles of Plymouth, D. H. Baker of Hillsborough and Lyford Merrow.

It is expected the appointment will be made at the meeting of the governor and council on Friday of next week. It is possible there may be a few changes because of declination to serve, but the foregoing men comprise the pick of the appointing power and most of them will be on the new board. They will not assume office until 3 days after their appointment, when they will appoint a business agent, who in turn will name the purchasing agent.

CURRENT OPINION

Present Distribution of Wealth Is Unjust and Unreasonable.

I do not believe that the use of force is never justifiable. I believe that there are cases in which it is not only right, but our clear Christian duty, to use force. But I believe that the church ought to strive with her whole strength for the elimination of the causes of war and to bring an end to the whole system of armed militarism which has so long prevailed.

There is not much gained by talking about world peace, unless we are willing to lay the foundation for it in our own immediate relationships. All of us know how much there is in our industrial and commercial life that is not in accord with the law of Christ. When we have made every proper allowance for the difference of reward, according to difference and quality of service, we know that the present distribution of wealth is a disproportionate and unreasonable one.

We know that the excessive riches of a man who has too much are as bad and often morally worse for him than poverty is for the man who has too little.

—By Dr. William T. Manning, Rector of Trinity Church, New York.

MANCHESTER ELKS TO BUILD

New Home to Be Erected in That City.

Within a month actual work on the new Elks' Temple at the corner of Walnut and Amherst streets, at Manchester, will begin, according to present plans of the order.

The recently appointed building committee is now outlining plans that are expected to be productive of results and within a year Manchester will have a lodge home unsurpassed in any city of its size in the country. The building is expected to cost approximately $30,000.

Next week has been designated "New Home Week" in the Elks' calendar. Four teams of members are to conduct a canvass which is expected to crystallize the support and sentiment in the order and it is expected that within a fortnight the question of awarding contracts will be under discussion.

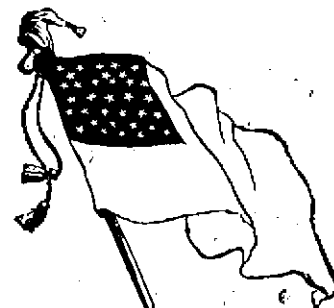

Next Tuesday night promises to be a big one with Elks. A large class of candidates will be initiated with the work being done by the Dover lodge.

STATE ROADS BEING OILED

Work Begins Today and Expected to Be Finished by July 1.

The state highway department has begun the work of oiling and resurfacing the state roads. Profiting by the long time taken last year to do the work, Commissioner F. Red E. Everett and his predecessor, the late Commissioner S. Percy Hooker, last winter mapped out a new plan. This is now being put into operation by Commissioner Everett, with the exception that the work will be finished throughout the state by July 1 instead of September 1, as was the case last year.

The contract made with the Standard Oil Company provided that the oiling and resurfacing should be done simultaneously on all three boulevards. A year ago one set of men went over the three roads. Today an oiling machine starts at Keene and will work over the entire length of the west side boulevard to Hanover. Next Monday another machine starts at Nashua and will travel the length of the Merrimack Valley boulevard to Hethelen and at the same time a third machine will get under way at Portsmouth and will traverse the east side road as far as Conway.

AUTO PARTY MEETS WITH ACCIDENT AT KITTERY

Occupants Thrown Out and Severely Injured on Post Road--Woman Loses Valuable Piece of Jewelry.

What nearly resulted in a fatal accident occurred on the Post road, Kittery, shortly before 9 o'clock this morning when the five passenger touring car of A. Zegeer, a merchant of Jewett City, Conn., skidded and upset throwing its occupants to the ground. In the car at the time together with Mr. Zegeer, were his wife and the latter's sister, Miss Mariana Kummer of Portland, Me.

The accident was due, according to Mr. Zegeer, and others who witnessed it, to the condition of the road which is being freshly oiled, with no sand covering. The car was going slowly at the time, but when it struck the oil it skidded, turned around, and upset on its side.

The truck of Wood Bros., operated by George Hatt of this city, came along shortly after the accident, and went to the assistance of Mr. Zegeer. The machine was righted and Dr. Henry I. Durgin was called. The women were taken into a nearby house whereupon examination it was found that Miss Kummer's left wrist was broken, and arm fractured. Mr. Zegeer's left side was severely bruised and face scratched, while his wife escaped with minor bruises and cuts.

During the mix-up a diamond pendant valued at $200 belonging to Mrs. Zegeer was lost, and although efforts were made to recover it, none were successful.

The automobile was slightly damaged, the wind shield was broken, and the fender badly bent.

The party was bound from Portland, Me., to Jewett City, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Zegeer continued their journey homeward and Miss Kummer returned to Portland on an afternoon train.

According to witnesses of the accident it is almost a miracle that all three occupants of the car were not killed, as the condition of the road was very dangerous, and Mr. Zegeer stated to a Herald reporter that they were indeed very thankful that they escaped with their lives.

U. S. COURT IS HEARING IT

Question of Passes for Leased Line Officials.

The right of the Boston and Maine railroad to issue passes to the officers and directors of auxiliary companies in accordance with the terms of the leases of such companies to the parent road is to come before the United States supreme court for final determination and is being argued in Washington this week.

The action taken as a test was brought by the Peterborough railroad and the question involved is whether the decree of the Interstate Commerce Commission forbidding the issuance of passes for any part of an inter-state journey applied to those formerly issued to the president or officers of the plaintiff road according to the provisions of the lease to the Boston and Lowell road, which was later assumed by the Boston and Maine. The plaintiff contends the passes are a tangible asset of the Peterborough road and their issue part of a contract. The United States Circuit Court ruled against the contention.

All leased lines of the Boston and Maine will be affected by the decision.

and General Good Time Enjoyed.

The Bowery Athletic Club scored another hit last evening and incidentally made themselves strong with their friends and parents. The occasion was their banquet held in U. V. U. hall at which much of the show, that was presented with such marked success on April 19th, was repeated. And even that wasn't all. The boys, in order to do the thing up right, invited all of their friends to help eat up as fine a turkey dinner as one could wish for in their wildest moments of hallucination.

The menu:
Roast Stuffed Turkey
Scalloped Oysters
Mashed Potatoes
Peas
French Bread
Pies
Cakes
Coffee

After dinner the invited guests made short addresses and each of the members was called on by Louis Soule, the toast master. All of these little speeches were full of fun and proved that they hadn't used everything they had in the line of humor when the show was given.

The speeches from the guests were made by F. W. Hartford, D. H. Blaisdell, and Herman Crompton, and they were well received. But the hits were made by the members themselves in their own little speeches. The merriment was continued until a late hour and all agreed that the evening was one great big success.

As a mark of appreciation to those who assisted in the presentation of the show the Little Bowery Athletic Club made several gifts. Harry Dowdell was presented with $10.00 in gold and a gold-stick pin; Miss Mary Chase with a gold fountain pen from the club; a silk umbrella from the four ends; the middle man and the assistant manager; Miss Lucille Jacques with a gold locket and photo of the minstrel troop; Miss Nellie Quirk a gold "Friendship" pin; Louis Soule with a watch fob; and Herman Crompton with a photo of the troop.

Each of the recipients thanked the club and its members in words that expressed their appreciation.

THINK FRANK'S SENTENCE WILL BE COMMUTED

Prominent persons of Greater Boston who have followed the proceedings in the case of Leo M. Frank, condemned to die in Georgia for the murder of Mary Phagan, are of the opinion that Frank will not be made to suffer the death penalty, but that Gov. John M. Stanton, in the event of adverse action on Frank's petition by the prison commission, will commute his sentence.

Some of the foremost citizens of Massachusetts have signed petitions to the chief executive of Georgia in behalf of Frank. The local commutation committee will be able to present to the prison commission of Georgia and to Gov. Stanton, according to present indications, more than 100,000 signatures of men, women and children in New England.

Such men as Gov. Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania, Myron T. Herrick, ex-ambassador to France, Philander C. Knox of Pennsylvania, ex-secretary of state; Chairman Walsh of the federal commission on industrial relations, Mayor Curley of Boston, Gov. Ferris of Michigan, former Gov. John L. Bates of Massachusetts, Honore Afters, dean of the Boston University law school; Mayor Ralph of San Francisco and many other persons of nationwide reputation have appeared for executive clemency in behalf of Frank. Prominent clergymen in all parts of Massachusetts are circulating petitions.

Approximately 1000 signatures were earned in today to the local by Mrs. Esther Goldkrand of 312 Centre street, Jamaica Plain, Mass.

AUTOS CRASH ON DOVER ROAD

TOURING CARS COME TOGETHER
NEAR VARNEY'S BRIDGE

That several persons were not seriously injured last evening in Dover is one of the peculiar incidents of auto accidents.

A big Packard touring car, owned and driven by George E. Graves of 161 Summer street, Malden; and a Jeffrey touring car being driven by Ralph L. Hussey of Berwick, Maine, came together near the Varney Bridge turn on the road from Dover to this city last night. Neither driver was to blame as far as could be learned, as the road at this point is very narrow and several accidents of a like sort have occurred there.

In the Massachusetts car with Mr. Graves was his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Graves, and their maid, Miss Agnes Hutchinson. Miss Hutchinson was badly shaken up when the cars struck and was taken to a hotel where she will remain for a few days. There were no other injuries.

With Mr. Hussey were Miss Arilla Twombly, Miss Lottie Hurd and Albert Keenan, all of Dover. None of the occupants of the Maine car were injured.

The two autos were smashed up to some extent, the radiator of the Packard being made useless and both cars damaged so that they had to be towed to a garage.

The accident occurred at about 8:45 o'clock, the Massachusetts car was on its way into Dover and the other coming out.

Campaigns For Pure Foods

have been eye-openers to the American people. Scores of food products have been weighed in the balance and found wanting.

One of the commonest faults—and a serious one—is the deficiency of mineral elements in white flour foods. To this lack is due, in large degree, nervous prostration, anemia, rickets in children, and many other ills.

Nearly a score of years ago a wonderful food—made from whole wheat and barley—was devised. It contains all the nutriment of the grain, including the valuable mineral salts so necessary for perfect building of body, brain and nerves.

That food is

OUR SHIP YARDS ARE FILLING UP

HAVE AT LEAST FIVE YEARS'
WORK AHEAD—NEARLY EVERY LARGE COMPANY LOOKING FOR NEW VESSELS

New York, May 20.—International Marine Engineering says: Owing to the great war in Europe, prices of steel used in shipbuilding have risen to a point very materially higher than steel is sold for shipbuilding in the United States. When there is added to this increased cost of material, the large increase in wages, the cost of building ships in British and continental yards is higher than it is in the United States. Furthermore, practically all the British and Continental ship yards are occupied very largely, if not fully, in naval work, so that very few orders are being placed for new merchant vessels. With existing tonnage in Europe, decreasing at an abnormal rate, there is great anxiety as to where the ships are coming from to handle the ocean traffic after the war is over. As a consequence, ship-owners in Great Britain, Spain, Portugal, Germany, France, Russia, Denmark, China, and other countries are inquiring as to the possibilities of having vessels built in the United States. Meantime nearly every steamship company flying the American flag is looking for new vessels. These companies include the Ward Line New York; the Union Sulphur Company the Matson Navigation Company San Francisco; the Gulf Steaming Company the Savannah Line the Jacksonbush Steamship Company the Clyde Line New York; the Merchant and Miners' Transportation Company Baltimore; and other countries. There is scarcely an American shipyard that can contract for a ship for delivery in just twenty to twenty-four months. With all the business in hand and in sight American shipyards have all the work that they can possibly handle for at least five years to come.

GERMANY'S REPLY DUE TUESDAY, SAYS LATEST DISPATCH

Berlin (via The Hague,) May 20.—Germany's reply to the American note regarding the Lusitania and similar incidents, in all probability will be completed by Monday. Unless there is some unforeseen delay, it will be delivered to Washington early next week.

I am informed that because of the length of the American note and because of the detailed requests it contains, the German reply requires the most careful drafting. But I am officially assured there is no reason for any apprehension concerning German-American relations.

The German reply, I am told, will be polite and friendly. It was emphasized that the last thing Germany is thinking of is a breach of diplomatic relations.

IF YOU ARE A MINISTER

When you look down into the faces of your congregation on Sunday morning does it ever occur to you that women's place should be "at home"? You never wish, do you, that women had stayed away from the church? Probably you think it would be bad for both women and the church if the women did stay away.

Don't you think it is equally bad for women to be barred from political life? When you go to the polls on election day, don't you wish the causes of righteousness could be as sure of the same devotion as the church is from women? You of all persons have the least cause to be afraid of women. If you believe in woman suffrage, use your influence for it.

BURNS POISON CASE JUNE 9

County Solicitor Gupitill Will Appear for State in Murder Trial.

The trial of Mrs. Mary A. Burns who is accused of killing her husband, Frank A. Burns at his home in Nottingham several months ago by administering poison will be held in this city June 9. The case had been set for June 7 but owing to court business the later date has been set.

County Solicitor Gupitill will appear for the state as he has a thorough knowledge of the case and has interviewed the witnesses. Mrs. Burns will be represented by the firm of Page, Bartlett and Mitchell.

At the time of the death of Mr. Burns and the arrest of Mrs. Burns through the efforts of Mr. Gupitill, the case attracted wide attention and it is expected that the trial will draw a large attendance. Mrs. Burns is now in the county jail in this city and is in very good health considering her long confinement.
